

WILSON AND KAREL VICTORIOUS IN THIS STATE

WILSON'S PLURALITY GROWS BY LEAPS AND BOUNDS AS THE LATER REPORTS COME IN—DEMOCRATS SWEEP ENTIRE COUNTRY FROM EAST TO WEST.

DEMOCRAT LANDSLIDE

While Wilson Has the Electoral Votes With Roosevelt Second, Taft Will Doubtless Be in Second Place on the Popular Ballot—Defeat Caused by Republican Desertion to Bull Moose Party.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] House of Representatives. Democrats 267. Republicans 99. Progressives 6. Districts unreported 63. Total membership 435. The foregoing table showed the house of representatives in the 63rd (new) congress. The total of 267 gave the democrats 49 more than the 218 necessary for a majority and was 37 more than the democratic membership in the 62nd congress.

Electoral college returns up to noon today indicated that of the 435 electoral votes, Wilson will have 387, Roosevelt 99, Taft 12, and doubtful 33.

New York, Nov. 6.—Overturning big republican majorities in states never before captured by the democrats in a presidential election, the Wilson-Marshall presidential ticket was swept into office yesterday on the wave of a victory that carried with it state offices, congressional seats and the control of a number of legislatures that will have the opportunity to oust republicans from the United States senate and add to the democratic strength in that body.

Second only in interest to the overwhelming victory of Gov. Wilson and his running mate, Gov. Marshall of Indiana, was the strength shown by Col. Roosevelt in Illinois, Pennsylvania and other states. On returns received up to tonight at 10 o'clock this morning from states where the result was reasonably certain, it appeared that Gov. Wilson would have almost if not quite 400 of the 531 votes in the electoral college and that Col. Roosevelt would have nearly 100. President Taft had received 12 votes, those of Vermont, Idaho, and Utah, while the 47 votes of Iowa, Minnesota, New Hampshire, South Dakota and Wyoming remained in the doubtful column.

In the hours that intervened between midnight and the receipt of fairly complete returns this morning there were many important changes in the results as early reported from the closely contested states. Based on returns from over half the state the 23 votes from Pennsylvania were apparently certain for Roosevelt at eight o'clock today. The race between Taft, Roosevelt and Wilson was almost an even affair until over 135,000 ballots had been counted. As precincts outside the largest cities began to report, Roosevelt and Wilson forced ahead with something over half the vote counted, Roosevelt this morning had a majority of over 20,000 in many strongholds yet to deliver their count. Minnesota, conceded to Wilson at midnight, slipped back to the doubtful column in the early morning hours when accession to the Roosevelt strength reduced the proportion of the democratic lead. Iowa, given to Roosevelt in the midnight returns showed a strong reversal of form and at eight o'clock this morning returns from a portion of the state gave Wilson a slight lead.

The race in New Hampshire was so close as to make predictions of the result impossible. Taft and Wilson ran neck and neck throughout the night as the count progressed. Taft's lead varying from 12 to something over 100, and with many districts yet to be counted the electoral vote remained at issue between the democratic and republican candidates.

The Roosevelt victory in Illinois showed signs of being greatly reduced as the "down state" precincts came in during the early morning hours. Reports from Chicago indicated that the big lead held by Col. Roosevelt last night gained chiefly through his large majority in Chicago and Cook County was being steadily reduced by the vote from democratic districts in the state at large, practically in the southern counties.

General Results. Chicago, Nov. 6.—Late returns, received up to three o'clock this afternoon from West Virginia, although incomplete, indicate that Wilson's plurality is about three thousand, with Taft and Roosevelt separated by only a few hundred votes. In New Hampshire, Wilson's lead in 260 out of 290 districts is 1,329, with Roosevelt running far behind. Figures received from 2875 precincts out of 4286 in Illinois show that Roosevelt has a lead of 15,140 over Wilson, with Taft running way behind, but Roosevelt's plurality will probably be reduced when the rest of the state is heard from.

In Minnesota, incomplete returns received up to noon today seemed to indicate that Wilson was leading in the presidential race. Oklahoma, too, will go for Wilson by an estimated plurality of 15,000. In Kansas the progressive leaders claimed the state by 8,000, but the Wilson managers assert that later returns will wipe out the lead. With the possible exception of Jacob Johnson, candidate for Congress, the republicans made a clean sweep in Utah in the elections yesterday. That Wilson will carry Nebraska by 30,000, is conceded today by the Omaha Bee, republican, and democrats claim the election of Morehead for governor by 20,000. Suffrage for women in Kansas carried by a majority of 50,000, according to setting returns received up to a late hour today. Michigan also gave women the ballot, according to early indications. In the 18th district, in Illinois, "Uncle Joe" Cannon's district complete return from five of six counties indicated that the former speaker would be returned to Congress, but his plurality will probably be less than 100. Mr. Cannon starts this afternoon for Panama.

Massachusetts gave Wilson a plurality of over 18,000 over Taft. The total vote was Wilson, 170,995 Taft, 152,255; Roosevelt, 140,152. Foss, democrat, was elected governor by a plurality of over 49,000 over Walker, his nearest opponent. Bird progressive running far behind. Early indications from the returns received from North Dakota were that Wilson's majority will be at about ten thousand. Republican state headquarters had previously conceded that Roosevelt had carried the state. In the fight for the governorship, both republicans and democrats claim a victory, and the returns show L. B. Hannah, republican, and F. O. Hellstrom, democrat, running nearly even, with the progressive candidate a poor third. In California, Wilson, was leading Roosevelt when the counting ceased early today not to be resumed until 8 o'clock. Roosevelt's plurality over his democratic opponent in Washington, is estimated at 30,000. Lister, democrat, for governor appears to have been elected over the republican candidate, and it is believed that all the progressive candidates with the exception of governor were elected.

Wilson was leading in Montana according to scattered returns early today with Taft and Roosevelt running only a few hundred apart, and returns from over half the precincts in Indiana show Wilson running ahead of that state, with over 79,000 ahead in that state with over 79,000 third. Wilson's lead in New Hampshire was increased to 1570 when returns were received from 270 of the 290 districts. The latest returns from Iowa indicate a Wilson victory there by less than 10,000. George W. Clark, governor and 9 of the 11 congressmen are considered to be republican and the legislature which elects a senator is thought to be republican. In Idaho the republicans appear to have carried everything, Taft by 8,000 and the state and congressional tickets by substantial majorities. The republicans also gained control of the legislature, assuring the election of two republican senators.

Chicago's Complete Vote. Chicago, Nov. 6.—Complete returns in the city of Chicago give Roosevelt 154,174; Wilson 127,697; Taft 72,605; Debs 54,677; Chaffin 2,895. Minnesota Incomplete. St. Paul, Nov. 6.—With the count of ballots in yesterday's presidential and state election in Minnesota still far from complete, Woodrow Wilson is still leading Col. Roosevelt in the state by a plurality of 4,575 and President Taft is 7,232 votes behind the former president. The returns at 8:00 o'clock gave Wilson 39,422, Roosevelt 34,746, Taft 27,512. The entire state republican ticket has been elected.

In North Dakota. Grand Forks, N. D., Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson's majority in North Dakota will reach about 12,000. With a few precincts to hear from Wilson's vote in the state is 39,920, Roosevelt 27,104, Taft 25,752. Congressman L. B. Hanna has been elected governor. The balance of the state has been carried by normal republican majority. The following congressmen in North Dakota have been elected: First district H. T. Helge, republican re-elected; second district George M. Young, republican; third district P. D. Norton, republican.

In North Carolina. Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 6.—North Carolina gave a majority of more than 50,000 to Wilson. Locke Craig, democrat, was elected governor by a majority of approximately 50,000 over his republican and progressive opponent. All democratic congressmen were elected.

Mississippi Returns. Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—Latest returns indicate that Wilson's majority in Mississippi will be about 100,000. An entire democratic congressional delegation has been returned.

South Carolina Vote. Columbia, S. C., Nov. 6.—Wilson's majority in this state is estimated at between 50,000 and 60,000. The democratic congressional delegation was re-elected.

Winnipeg County. Oshkosh, Nov. 6.—The complete returns from the 41 precincts in Winnipeg county give the following figures: Governor—McGovern 5,490, Karel 4,367.

President—Wilson 4,367, Roosevelt 4,103, Taft 1,908. Congress—J. H. Davidson, 4,994. Reilly 4,497. This makes a majority for Davidson of 497 in the county. Reilly claims his majority in Fond du Lac county will offset any lead Davidson may have.

Assembly—With one precinct in Oshkosh missing the first assembly district gives M. T. Battis, Oshkosh, Taft republican, 1,699, Joseph Smick, Oshkosh, socialist, 1,021.

Manitowoc County. Manitowoc, Wis., Nov. 6.—Complete returns from Manitowoc county give Wilson 3,213, Taft 2,175, Roosevelt 865, Karel 3,817, McGovern 1,353.

Woodrow Wilson.

PRESIDENT-ELECT WOODROW WILSON.

Those who know most intimately the home life of the Woodrow Wilson family declare it to be ideal. The family circle includes besides the governor and his wife, three charming unmarried daughters, Margaret, Jessie and Eleanor. Mrs. Wilson is one of the most charming women in the world. She is intensely interested in her husband's career, and is said to know as much about inside politics as many of the most clever politicians of the country. Yet her knowledge of politics does not exceed her knowledge of many other things. She can talk art, literature, domestic or social science, and is an authority on them all.

Especially art. Mrs. Wilson doubtless would have gained fame as an artist had not her marriage turned her attention to other things. She has high talent as a landscape painter, and the work that she has done along this line has been of a high quality.

Her gifts as a landscape gardener showed to rare advantage when the Woodrow Wilson family moved into the governor's mansion at Sea Girt. An unattractive, austere ground, with unyielding geometrical flower-bed and a general mission-built air was transformed into a place of beauty, just because she knew what could be done with a pool, a sun dial and the right kind of flowers.

Mrs. Wilson, like all the members of her family, is a great reader. Her favorite authors are Kipling, Carlyle, Addison and George Elliot, and the same authority declares that she never is found with one of the six "best sellers" in her hand.

One of the daughters, Eleanor Randolph Wilson, is a student in the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts at Philadelphia. The second daughter, Jessie Woodrow, is assisting Mrs. R. K. P. Bradford in settlement work at the "Lighthouse," a social center for mill workers at Kensington, Pa., having graduated from the Baltimore Woman's College at twenty.

The youngest daughter, Margaret Woodrow Wilson, is cultivating her voice in New York city.

There is nothing of the social butterfly in the Wilson girls. Indeed, their lives show quite the reverse. They are studious and serious-minded and all of them are fired with the ambition to do something worth while in the world.

This doesn't mean, of course that they are not fond of play. They like tennis and other outdoor games, and give as much time to recreation as normal girls should.

Of Governor Wilson himself, much has been written and said. Time has dealt kindly with him. The slight stoop into which he falls when standing or sitting is not from wear of years. It is the stoop of the scholar. Wilson is a scholar always. Even at home he may generally be found with a book in his hand—a book, perhaps it were needless to add, dealing with political economy or the science of government.

Mrs. Wilson says that when she is at Sea Girt with her family gathered around her she is the happiest woman in the world. Why shouldn't she be?

TURKISH STRONGHOLD WAS OCCUPIED TODAY

MONASTIR WAS SURRENDERED THIS AFTERNOON TO THE SERBIAN TROOPS.

BALKAN FORCES GAIN

Allied Forces are Winning Consistently in War With Turkey, Driving Turkish Troops Before Them. [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

London, Nov. 6.—The Turkish stronghold of Monastir surrendered at two o'clock this afternoon to the Serbian troops according to a dispatch from Belgrade to the Tribune. If, as reported, the Bulgarian attack on the Tchatalja forts has already begun, no details have yet been received. Doubtless the Turks may be fighting small engagements with a view to delaying the Bulgarian advance, but it is hard likely that the Bulgarian army has sufficiently recovered, after recent exertions, to undertake a sustained battle.

The fact that the Serbian army has been called to the aid of the Bulgarians is held by some to indicate that the Bulgarians realize that it will be no easy task to reduce Constantinople. The report that the Constantinople water supply has been cut is not confirmed. Derkas, where the cutting is alleged to have occurred is within the Tchatalja line.

The ports are redoubting its efforts to save the capital and has made a second appeal to France for mediation. But there is no sign that the powers will move in the matter unless the allied states make a similar application, which is exceedingly unlikely.

In the meantime the Turks continue mobilizing in Syria and are taking all measures for a strong resistance at Tchatalja. Constantinople is quiet but the embassies have applied to the ports for permission for the passage of a second cruiser of each power through the Dardanelles.

Scutari and Adrianople still hold out and there is no important news from the field of operations in other directions.

COMMITTEE REPORTS ON RURAL SCHOOLS

Committee Urges Abandonment of Present Schools for Modern, Central Schools.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., Nov. 6.—Abandon the isolated district school and establish a modern, properly equipped, hygienic central school, is the program set for Wisconsin rural school districts by the Committee of Fifteen appointed by State Superintendent C. P. Cary to study the rural school problem. In a bulletin which went to the printer today, a sub-committee on consolidation, consisting of President F. A. Cotton of the La Crosse state normal school, Prof. M. V. O'Shea of the University of Wisconsin, and State Rural School Inspector W. E. Larson reviews the whole subject of consolidation, and relates the history of the movement in Wisconsin.

By consolidation is meant the uniting of two or more schools into one. As a rule, the distance children are transported to school does not exceed five miles under this plan. The country school is held to be a complete central school in each township, to which all the children in that territory shall go. Some consolidated schools nearly approach this ideal.

On this subject the bulletin says: "It should have a kindergarten, eight grades, and a high school with a four-year course. It should be a center for the township library, lecture courses, musical programs, and other means for making country life more attractive and educational. Manual training and domestic science are essential. Consolidation permits better grading and insures the enrollment of a larger percent of pupils and a better attendance. It also lengthens the school term, secures a more efficient teaching corps, and lengthens the time of service of such teachers. It insures better buildings and equipment and quickens interest in the schools. The larger boys and girls are kept in school longer and it enables hundreds who could not otherwise have done so to take advantage of a high school course. It gives opportunity for thorough work in special branches, enables young people to stay on the farms, and furnishes many of the advantages of city schools and none of the disadvantages of city life. It creates wider circles of friendships and refines social life." There are a large number of consolidated schools in Wisconsin now, but the number is small compared with that in some other states, notably Indiana. The bulletin will be illustrated with pictures of typical rural schools and examples of consolidation.

KAREL LEADS IN GUBERNATORIAL FIGHT IN THE STATE—WILSON ALSO THOUGHT TO HAVE "CARRIED" STATE BY A NARROW MARGIN.

RACE IS A CLOSE ONE

Milwaukee Judge's Lead This Afternoon Given Out as Twelve Thousand Ahead of McGovern With Part of the State to Hear From.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Milwaukee, Nov. 6.—Latest election figures on the governorship of Wisconsin with Milwaukee county complete and 942 precincts outside give Karel, democrat, for governor, 95,679, and McGovern, republican, 83,782, showing Karel's plurality with about half the state yet to hear from. Karel says he is confident of having carried the state.

Returns from several counties this afternoon cut down Karel's plurality quite materially, but the race will be a mighty close one. Wilson is also thought to have carried the state but by a smaller plurality than Karel's total vote. This afternoon reports from Fond du Lac report that Reilly has won out in the sixth congressional district over present member, James H. Davidson for congress by a thousand plurality.

JOHN C. KAREL.

Early Report. With not over half the election precincts in Wisconsin heard from both republican and democratic state chairman claim their candidate for governor with the rest of the ticket are elected. In tabulating this returns from 1088 precincts out of 2215 in the state an error was made, which gave McGovern 5700 too many votes. With this correction made, Karel should have 122,916 and McGovern 118,170.

Chairman Scott of the republican campaign committee says the remaining precincts to be heard from are in McGovern's stronghold and claims the governor's re-election. Karel men are just as confident that their candidate will pull through.

Thomas F. Konop democrat, 9th congressional district, was re-elected. Chairman Scott concedes Konop's victory over Morse.

The race for congress in the 6th district between James H. Davidson republican and M. K. Reilly democrat is very close, both claiming election.

Chairman Scott says Reilly probably is elected.

Scattering returns on the woman's suffrage amendment show that the proposition has been overwhelmingly defeated.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET IS CARRIED BY 2,000 MAJORITY

WITH RETURNS FROM ALL BUT A FEW PRECINCTS RECEIVED REPUBLICANS SAFELY SECURE COUNTY.

WHIPPLE FOR SHERIFF

Polls Heavy Vote in Beloit and Gettysburg, 2,400 Majority in Spite of Connell's Showing in Janesville.

With the county carrying for Taft and McGovern by 1,200 and 418, respectively, the republican county ticket was more fortunate receiving an endorsement in its entirety by a majority of over 2,000 votes according to unofficial returns complete except for three or four minor precincts.

Whipple's Vote Big.

In spite of the fact that Ed H. Connell made a fine run for sheriff on the democratic ticket in this city receiving a majority of 448, Beloit did much better by Cassius S. Whipple giving him a majority of 1,798 or a vote of nearly seven to one. This splendid endorsement of Whipple in his home city swells his majority in the county materially giving him a majority of 2,402, or the largest vote of any candidate on the republican ticket.

County Clerk W. Lee who has the distinction of being the only republican to carry Janesville at this election, was honored with the second largest majority in the county according to the returns as thus far received. His majority over his democratic opponent, Fred Sherman of the town of Fulton, was 2,337. From the returns thus far received Mr. Lee carried all but three precincts two of which were in the city of Janesville. The total vote was Lee, 5,197; Sherman, 2,850.

For Other Offices.

F. F. Livermore of Beloit leads Clark Palmer of the town of Lima in the race for county treasurer by 2,203, the vote standing 5,815 for Livermore to 3,612 for Palmer.

Stanley G. Dunwiddie of this city has a majority of 1,867 over R. M. Richmond of Evansville in the contest for district attorney. The total vote as received stands Dunwiddie, 4,862, Richmond 2,995.

F. P. Smiley of this city secured a majority over Frank Hyne of Evansville in the register of deeds race, of 2,120, the vote standing, Smiley 4,981 Hyne 2,861.

Jesse Earle of this city leads David T. Boner of Clinton in the clerk of the court contest by 2,041. The votes stand Earle 4,912, and Boner 2,871.

Beloit Strongly Republican.

According to the returns the city of Janesville was the only stronghold for the democratic county office candidates, all of them receiving majorities here except county clerk. In the city of Beloit the republican county ticket was well supported as is shown especially in the case of Mr. Whipple and Mr. Livermore while the other candidates fared nearly as well.

In the townships and villages the republican ticket for the county offices carried quite generally with a few exceptions here and there. The majorities were all of them reduced, however, in the townships in comparison with former years and in several places the democrats came very close to carrying the ticket.

Mr. Wray's headquarters will be in Chicago, but his work will be mostly west of the Mississippi river. As an electrical engineer, Mr. Wray has advanced rapidly in his profession. Mr. Wray is also the inventor of a selector, part of the apparatus used by railroads which have telephone dispatching systems. His invention was first tried out by the Northwestern railroad between this city and Davenport.

HEALTH OF THE CHILD IS INTERESTING TOPIC

Do you eat breakfast every day? Do you drink coffee or tea? Do you have your bedroom window open or shut at night? Do you own a toothbrush?

These and other pertinent questions are to be answered by the children in the public schools of Minnesota. They form part of a "Health Grading Outline" prepared by Dr. Ernest B. Hoag, special director of school hygiene for the state, whereby teachers and school nurses may learn in the most direct manner possible the physical condition of the children entrusted to their care. "Rational conservation of the mental and physical health of our school children" is the ultimate ideal of this and other current health projects reported to the United States Bureau of Education.

The appointment of a special state director for school hygiene, and the institution of a searching but non-technical health survey by teachers and school nurses, are important contributions to the school hygiene movement that is now steadily making its way throughout the country.

THOUSANDS WATCHED ELECTION RESULTS

DESPITE DRIZZLING RAIN INTEREST IN ELECTION KEPT MANY ON STREETS.

KNEW RESULTS EARLY

First Authentic News of Wilson's Election Came Shortly After Seven With New York Returns.

That the general public appreciated the efforts of the Gazette to furnish them with the latest election news as quickly as possible, was evidenced last night when hundreds of persons stood for hours watching the election bulletins which were flashed from the Gazette office as fast as received. They began to assemble by seven o'clock and it was long after twelve before they began to diminish in numbers to any apparent calculation, despite the fact that the result of the great contest was foreshadowed by the early results from the east shortly after seven. All evening long as fast as the vote was received over the special wire and by telephone, the results were quickly flashed on the screen and at frequent intervals compilation of the figures made to give the watchers accurate news of the way things were going.

Interest seemed to center in the state contest as soon as it was definitely known that Wilson had won and as the Karel figures came up McGovern seemed to lead, the crowds expressed their approbation or disapproval. Nor were the persons watching the election sheets the only ones interested as frequent calls, at least six every five minutes by telephone, until after midnight were received. These inquiries were answered as quickly as possible and were not confined to city calls as many residents of country districts called up for information. The county returns were slow to come in owing to the complicated counting.

Prevention of Mildew.

Nothing should be stored in a damp condition on account of mildew, which is a vegetable growth, being a kind of fungus, which quickly spreads, and is very difficult to remove. To remove it from flannel ether is best to use. For mildew on cotton material, damp the part, rub soap thickly on cover with powdered French chalk and put in the sunshine, and keep repeating the process until the spots disappear.

MRS. WORRY.

BY C. A. VOIGHT.

Word comes from Paris that Billy Papke, Illinois middleweight who recently defeated Carpenter, the French champion, has clinched a ten weeks' music hall engagement at $750 a week as the result of his victory.

Jack Johnson is down and out in America, but his reputation is still good in darkest Russia. Jack has been offered $30,000 and a third of the fight films money if he will sign for a bout in Moscow. He says he will leave America for the Czar's country on November 30. We hope he says true. The civilization is about on a par with his own.

Chicago has voted Heinie Zimmerman the most popular baseball player in the city, the great Ed Walsh running second.

Fred Snodgrass of the New York Giants will play winter ball in California. He hopes to be able to catch easy fly balls by spring.

Mordecai Brown, released to Louisville by the Chicago Cubs, says he'll quit baseball if he isn't made manager of the Colonels. His early retirement is expected.

Buck O'Brien, Boston Red Sox twirler, will probably not be wearing a Boston American uniform in 1913. It has leaked out that First Baseman Zeider and Harry Lord of the Chicago Americans are to be traded to the Red Sox for O'Brien.

August Belmont, who recently sold his famous Rock Sand to a French syndicate, regrets the necessity of the move. He declares that had there been any future in America for a stallion of Rock Sand's value, he would have kept him here. America is not even on a par with the smallest European countries, Belmont says, in its treatment of the thoroughbred. Racing associations here are not financially able to offer prices that would furnish conclusive guides for breeding great horses, so they are all leaving America.

Blossom Seeley, the actress, who is appearing in vaudeville with Rubie Marquard, has given up for good her husband, Joseph Kane. Just before the separation the actress had a quarrel with Kane over the attentions of her ball player stage-partner.

Larry Doyle, of the New York Giants, told Garry Herrman of the Cincinnati Reds the other day how he liked the job of reporting the world's series games. "It was the hardest work I ever tackled," chuckled Larry. "I didn't write a line, but it was awful hard on the nerves to listen to what some reporter wrote for me and then sign my name to stuff that looked to me like inkblings from the pen of King Solomon. But you know I got $600 in coin for the work, and that's pretty good for a reporter who is no reporter at all."

BASEBALL NOTES.
Manager "Kid" Elberfeld is signing new players in the hope of building up the Chattanooga team.
Rumors are floating about in Texas League circles that the Austin franchise is to be transferred to Oklahoma City.
John McGraw, manager of the Giants, has made such a hit in vaudeville, that his engagement has been extended a full season.
Handsome Harry McIntire says if Frank Chance will sign a $1,200 contract with the Cubs, he (Harry) will play for Murphy for nothing.
After a short hunting trip Jim Sheppard and Jim Archer, of the Cubs, will leave for Florida where they will spend the winter months.
Olaf Henriksen, of the Boston Red Sox, who played such a prominent part in winning the deciding game, is home talent. His home is in Canton, a suburb of Boston.
When Ray Collins and Larry Gardner, of champion Red Sox, returned to their native state of Vermont, the University of Vermont and the City of Burlington tendered the two boys a great reception.
The Philadelphia Athletics, the New York Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates have stood pat on their managers for years, while most of the other major league clubs try a new pilot every season or so.
"Big Ed" Walsh, of the White Sox, was the pitcher, oftenest called upon to go to the front, in the big leagues, during the past season. The records show that Ed took part in no less than 51 games.

FOOTBALL NOTES.
Vanderbilt which beat Mississippi 24 to 0 this year, defeated the same team by 21 to 0 in 1911.
The Yale coaches think that Romeiser will be able to play against Harvard, if not against Princeton.
The Carlisle Indians are winning everything in sight this season, even going over the border and scolding the Canadians.
Charley Brickley, the Harvard star, is a natural drop-kicker and by constant practice has developed a wonderful accuracy.
York, the Yale guard, probably will not play any more football this season. Harbison, however, is believed to be a good man for the position.
Dan McGugin, the Vanderbilt coach, believes that his football warriors have a splendid chance to defeat Harvard when the two teams meet in Cambridge, Nov. 9.
There will be 30,680 tickets printed for this year's Army-Navy game, and of this number 10,000 will be sold through the University of Pennsylvania committee for three dollars a piece.
Coach "Hurricane" Yost, of the Michigan squad, has been working his men to the limit since their defeat at the hands of Syracuse. The coming game with Pennsylvania is causing Yost to put the old "Hurricane" method into practice.

TEAM WORKING TO STRENGTHEN LINE

High School Eleven Given Stiff Workout in Drizzle Last Night to Improve Defense.

The local football warriors hailing from the high school, were given a stiff practice last night despite the drizzling rain. Prof. E. J. Haumer, a former member of the high school faculty and athletic coach, assisted the team in offensive and defensive tactics. His chief help was in the line, from where his experience came while playing tackle on the Wisconsin University team in 1904. The local line now see their weak points, and by his careful methods of instruction, for a few nights, they should be able to hold any line in the state. Their chief weakness has been in defense, and much time will be spent in the line in the future.

It is sincerely hoped that Madison will accept the challenge the locals sent to them. Janesville is ready to meet them, and a victory can already be predicted. La Crosse, Madison, Eau Claire and Oshkosh are in the running for the state title. Port Adams was eliminated last Saturday when La Crosse defeated them by the lopsided score of 47 to 6. Oshkosh plays Madison at Madison next Saturday for the title. If Madison wins which is the prediction, they will have to defeat La Crosse at their city the following Saturday. Then Madison and Eau Claire are on equal terms for the title. If Janesville is not in the running one of these teams will have to show them by a victory. The locals can defeat Madison and it is hoped a chance may be had at them. Madison seems to be the only contender in southern part of the state.

They have overlooked the locals, and if once given a trial at them the locals may spring a surprise. An immediate reply is expected from the Capitol city team.

MEN'S MACKINAWS

Patrick-Duluth Genuine and Original Mackinaw
Cloth Resists Cold, Wind and Moisture.

GUARANTEED ALL---WOOL

Made After An Original and Genuine Mackinaw Process

This celebrated process of mackinaw cloth-making has been handed down from a community of Scandinavian wool-weavers, working with hand looms in the years of Minnesota's first settlement. This has developed into the present Patrick-Duluth Woolen Mill at Duluth.

But the original mackinaw method used by the Scandinavian weavers has been carefully preserved. The Old World treatment of the raw wool gives a strong, fleecy cloth of Greatest Warmth for Least Weight. None have been able to duplicate either Patrick Cloth or process.

To make sure that you get the genuine and original mackinaw cloth, insist on the PATRICK-DULUTH TRADE MARK in the mackinaws you buy. This cloth is found only in mackinaws of their own manufacture.

The Process

Long fiber Northern wool treated with a special process which thoroughly cleanses it while preserving the valuable wool lanolin to resist cold, wind and moisture. The lanolin keeps every fiber strong and elastic.

The yarn is snug wove into the cloth with special care that the weave shall be even, close and flawless.

The tight web fabric is then subjected to the Genuine Scandinavian triple "fulling" process which shrinks the cloth to three times its original thickness and tightens every wool fiber. This adds greatly to its storm-proof qualities and strength.

Finally the cloth goes through an elaborate and delicate finishing process of steaming, brushing, combing and hot-pressing which brings out a beautiful, fleecy, nap.

The Garment

The design and tailoring of Patrick-Duluth Mackinaws is real mackinaw quality. Years of successful experience and study have given our designs a smartness of tailored style that makes them suitable for all out-door wear in town and country. The most prominent and fashionable people in every community enjoy wearing these mackinaws. Plain or Norfolk. Plaids or Plain colors, $9.00 to $13.50.

THE WHITE PLAGUE.

The state of Wisconsin has taken an active interest in the crusade against the white plague, and much intelligent work is being accomplished. Perhaps the most important feature in the establishing of county sanitariums, where patients may be cared for near home. Seven counties have already made appropriations, and the County Board of Rock county will consider the question at its November meeting next week.

Miss Edith Tate represents the state Anti-Tuberculosis association in this important work. She reports that Rock county has had 253 deaths from tubercular diseases during the past three and a half years, and says:

"There are at present, figuring on the lowest estimate, over 300 living cases of tuberculosis in Rock county. Dane county has pledged themselves to an appropriation at the County Board meeting next month. In the past three and one-half years they have had 276 deaths. Rock county has had seventeen applications for treatment at the state sanitarium, since it was opened. The greater percentage of these patients have not been county charges. Wisconsin is losing every year over 2,500 of her citizens with the white plague; most of them are young people who are needed."

The present plan of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association is to establish in the larger counties where the death rate is high, a small sanitarium, where those in the county suffering from the disease may go. Many of these cases can go and learn how to care for themselves and return home, while the far advanced case, which is always dangerous in the home, can be cared for near at hand, where their families can see them.

Milwaukee county has a small sanitarium that has a waiting list all the time. Many of their patients, after three or four months of treatment, go back to their regular employment. Douglas county has a small institution. Manitowoc, the first of December, will open their sanitarium. Racine county has started building. Outagamie, Fond du Lac and Eau Claire counties have made appropriations. Kenosha, Brown, Jefferson, Winnebago, Sheboygan, Dane and Rock counties have committees appointed to report at the November meeting of the County Boards.

"Here is a constructive piece of humanitarianism, providing a place in each county where those afflicted with tuberculosis may go, and be near home. If that doesn't mean anything to the average reader go to Colorado, and look into the faces of those who are far from home, and you'll know what it means."

"Scientific men admit now that the cure of tuberculosis is no longer one of climate. Wisconsin has produced many cures, and the country sanitarium for persons in the secondary and advanced stages of the disease is no longer an experiment."

"If the problem confronted you in your own family, then you would understand what a county sanitarium would mean. The state is paying $3.00 per week for county charges, and provision has been made in the building arrangements so each patient has a private porch room. With the state aid raised, after the appropriation is made for the building, the expense to the county will be very small."

This is a work which appeals to humanity and the good people of Rock county can not afford to neglect it. There is no more pitiable a sight than a community of sufferers, patiently waiting for health or death among strangers, at some health resort. Everything but the climate is against them, and many of them die from pure homesickness.

The disease, in its early stages, can be treated as successfully in Wisconsin as in any other state, and we owe it to our own people to give them a chance for life at home, where the mind can contribute to the cure of the body. This is humanitarian work which borders on philanthropy.

THE LANDSLIDE.

The experiences of 1893 were repeated in the landslide of yesterday when the democrats scored a signal victory by capturing not only the national, but many state administrations. The lower house of congress will be top-heavy and the senate is likely to be democratic. This is better than divided support as it gives the president a free hand and locates responsibility.

The nation is assured of the fact that a clean, honest man has been elected to preside over the country's destinies for the next four years, and it is to be hoped that the party, so soon to take command, will appreciate the responsibility.

Public confidence is the great bulwark of national prosperity. It has been so long enjoyed that its importance is not fully appreciated, but it is a sensitive plant and it remains for the victorious party to determine whether or not it shall continue to thrive.

Seventy per cent of the voters to-day cast their first ballots less than twenty years ago. Many of them exalted the individual above the party, forgetful of the fact that policies are of more vital importance than men. It is to be hoped that the experiences of 1893 will not be repeated.

The success of Wilson is due to liberal republican support, called out by a determination to defeat Roosevelt at any cost. The feeling prevailed, to large extent, that the nation was safer in the hands of an old party, than under the dictation of any one man, however popular he might be.

When the smoke clears away, and the vote is analyzed, it will be found that Colonel Roosevelt had an army of supporters. Much of this support was due to his personal popularity, and many people were captivated by what he proposed to do if elected.

He succeeded in rending the republican party in twain, and is likely to remain as a disturbing element, the same as Bryan did after he disrupted the democratic party. The so-called progressives of the country will enjoy the administration of a progressive leader in the newly elected president, and the pace may be fast enough to suit the most enthusiastic disciples.

The nation is making history rapidly, and the chapters to be written during the next four years will largely determine the destiny of parties. Should the experience of 1893 be repeated, there will be a scurrying to cover, and there will be no disposition to experiment with untried parties.

In the meantime the nation is prosperous today, and if wisdom prevails the era of prosperity will be continued. The will of the majority has been expressed, and it remains for the people to accept the verdict without complaint, and continue to saw wood while the wood is in sight.

THE WASTE OF WAR.

The fact is not always considered that the money spent on war is a dead loss of the world's capital which is never made good. The demand for goods and the temporary advance in prices is misleading for the reaction is bound to come, and with it are always the evidences of loss. This fact is well brought out by "Holland" in a letter of recent date. He says:

"Just after the war between England and the Boers was terminated one of the leading men of international finance stated that notwithstanding the stupendous outburst of prosperity which prevailed everywhere in the United States at that time, nevertheless this condition could not last, perhaps, more than a year or two. This man predicted that not until the dead loss of capital which the Boer war occasioned was made good and not until Great Britain had satisfactorily financed the balance of its war debt was it possible for real prosperity to be established. The United States had enjoyed a sort of feverish prosperity occasioned in part by the heavy purchases of material, equipment and food which were made by Great Britain at the time of the Boer war. But this, in the opinion of finance, was not a healthy prosperity. A year or two later the country experienced what is called a silent or rich man's panic, and there is no highly qualified financial expert who did not attribute to England's war in South Africa the chief cause for the reaction which prostrated the securities market in 1902."

"We were recovering from that demoralization when the war between Russia and Japan began. That war tended to revive business prosperity in the United States. We sold enormously both to Russia and Japan and we lent large amounts of money to Japan. But it is now realized that this prosperity which was very high in 1906, was feverish and not wholly healthy. The Russo-Japanese war caused a death loss of about $2,000,000 of capital. To that loss is attributed the growth of conditions which contributed greatly to our own panic in the year 1907. If therefore, the Balkan war should be long continued and should entail very heavy losses of capital—losses which are dead losses in case of war—then the probabilities are strong that in the course of two or three years the United States may feel the reaction which losses of this kind are certain to entail."

For the first time in many years the first assembly district of Rock county has elected a democrat to the legislature. This was not because of the popularity of the candidates, because Mr. Paul was but little known in many parts of the district. The change of

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT
BY ROY K. MOULTON.

The Spellbinders.
A feller came the other night,
And made a speech. 'Twas out of sight.

He spoke down in the old town hall,
The population, one and all,
Turned out to hear this feller tell
'Em how to vote. He argued well.
He was so smooth, by jing, that he Could charm a bird out of a tree.
He grabbed the stars out of the sky,
He waved the starry flag on high.
He said it was up to us men
To save our country once again.
He said as how 'twould go to pot,
Providin' of course we did not
Stick to that old and faithful craft,
The Ship of State and vote for Taft.

Another feller came along.
We all turned out to hear his song.
He said as how the time had come,
To put the bosses on the hum.
That we could put them on the blink
If we desired, quick as a wink.
He told us all would be serene;
That there would be no statecraft mean;

That common folks would git their rights,
And would not have to worry nights;
That this would be a land of milk
And honey and we'd all wear silk;
We'd ride in automobiles and Enjoy all the sensations grand
Which, up to now, the rich had felt,
If we'd just vote for Roosevelt.

Along about the second day
Another feller came our way.
He said the tariff was a crime;
That free trade was a thing sublime.
He said the people everywhere
Was not agetin' of their share.
Of good things that this world provides;

That we was foolish, that our hides,
For not demandin' what was ours
From them infernal money powers,
Had turned a word prier that Must turned a feller Democrat.
His language was so doggone slick,
He got our goat and got it quick.
He said the trusts would have to bow

If we would vote for Wilson, now.

Through all the speeches we have sat—
Bill Moose, Repub. and Democrat—
And judgin' by the talks we've heard,
To be alarmed is quite absurd.
No matter how the contest goes,
It means an end of all our woes.
No matter who's elected, we Are going to have prosperity.

sentiment was due to the determination to rebuke the present administration, and the vote was an expression of popular sentiment. The republican candidate had the misfortune to be associated with a ticket which stood for nothing by way of party loyalty, and which had nothing to commend it in the light of experience.

The campaign which culminated yesterday was an individual campaign of independence, so freely exploited, and parties were generally ignored. Roosevelt and Wilson were lauded as men, while Taft was the object of

If the drug store would only put on a free lunch it might be all right. Deacon Stubbs' mule, Hyacinth, swampered about nine rods of wire fence last week and now the deacon says he can see good points sucking out all over her.

A forty candlepower sneeze wagon from the city hastened through our village last Thursday and knocked down the town hall. They let loose a couple of snorts on the horn all right, but the town hall didn't have time to get out of the way. I suppose they will claim that was contributory negligence.

Had Peters has moved into a new house that has got hot and cold gas, hard wood plumbing, open floors and southern exposure. He told Rev. Hymnutt he had bought the place on the installment plan, $1.00 down and 25 cents a month, and if his great grand-children are industrious they can at least get the front stoop paid for.

According to Uncle Abner.

Mr. Amos Tibbs, who has always wanted the postoffice in this man's town but has never got it, is now a full-fledged Bull Moose. Mr. Amos Tibbs, who was defeated for road commissioner when he ran on the Republican ticket last spring, has joined the Bull Moose party. Mr. Hank Tumms, who has in his time been the unsuccessful candidate for the nomination for register of deeds, sheriff, county treasurer, county clerk, judge of probate and coroner, is now one of our most prominent Bull Moose.

Miss Amy Pringle, our petite and courteous milliner, has gone to West Hickeyville to get the latest Paris shapes for the fall season. Mr. Elmer Bibbins, our popular druggist, made a mistake and put gasoline instead of gin in the "lemon" department of his soda fountain and several of our prominent citizens have gone crazy and think they are automobiles.

the man. This was true of Cleveland, and it will be equally true of Wilson.

The state administration received a rebuke yesterday that should prove an eye-opener. The people expressed their censure and disapproval most emphatically, and the lesson should not be forgotten. There will be many changes in the legislature which will tend to check extravagance. The patriots of the state, who are on the pay roll, may be sensible enough to discover the fact that they are served.

A bargain cyclone has struck. We have offered many good bargains before but we have never offered any that would equal those that will await you here during Merchants and Manufacturers week, all next week, Nov. 11th to 16th. That the store will be crowded from morning until night—that everyone will be pleased—that everybody will be buying two and three and four times as much as they anticipate purchasing is generally conceded. The sale will be in full blast Monday; each day new articles will be thrown on the counters, lots of which we will not have time to mention in the papers. "If you don't see what you want, ask for it," is as old as the nursery rhymes; yet it'll fit in here, for the big stock cannot be placed on exhibition at one time. Large as the store is, it is not large enough to display all the big stocks that the Big Store is possessed of.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET CARRIES THE CITY BY A LARGE MARGIN

WILSON LEADS TAFT IN JAMESVILLE BY 309 AND KAREL ETTERS MCGOVERN 870.

LEE ONLY REPUBLICAN

On State or County Ticket That Gets a Plurality Over Democratic Candidates Although Other County Officers Are Close.

The city of Jamesville, for the first time in twenty years, went democratic. Wilson and Karel carried the city by fair-sized pluralities while the republican county ticket forged heavily to the front, but failed to win out with the exception of Howard W. Lee, candidate for county clerk, who carried the city by 39 votes, over Sherman. Gov. Wilson carrying the first, second, fourth and fifth wards by substantial majorities, secured a total vote of 1,062 in the city, giving him a plurality over President Taft of 309. Taft carried the third ward with 253 against Wilson's 212, and was given a total vote of 753. Roosevelt was a popular third with a total of 544. Figures for president in the city were:

	Roosevelt	Wilson	Taft
First ward	140	330	166
Second ward	130	101	175
Third ward	253	166	212
Fourth ward	163	91	320
Fifth ward	47	56	189
Total	753	544	1062

Karel's Large Vote.

The vote for governor in the city gives Karel a majority of $70. He carried every ward by a good margin. This vote indicates that a large number of the republicans who voted for Taft voted the state democratic ticket, while the bull moose strength swung to McGovern. The vote for McGovern in the city follows:

	McGovern	Karel
First ward	173	260
Second ward	133	263
Third ward	211	11
Fourth ward	143	437
Fifth ward	66	241
Total	726	1599

As to the other state offices, the democrats also won in the city, but not by as large majorities over their republican rivals as the head of the ticket. Bolens had a plurality of 600 over Morris; Schmitt leads Johnson for state treasurer 409; Kealy leads Donald for secretary of state by about the same figure; while Kading had the best of Owen for attorney general by 513.

Legislative Results.

The victory of Calvin Stewart of Kenosha over Henry Allen Cooper of Racine in the Jamesville city vote came as a surprise to many, but in view of the democratic landslide the result is not so surprising. Stewart's majority in the city is but 272 which is a considerable reduction from the lead of the ticket. The congressional vote by wards follows:

	Stewart	Cooper
First Ward	189	219
Second Ward	191	157
Third Ward	289	312
Fourth Ward	573	177
Fifth Ward	208	53
Total	1,350	958

Ed. Carey of Deloit secured a majority over his fellow townsman Lawrence E. Cunningham in the Jamesville vote on the state senator by 326. Cunningham succeeded in carrying the third ward but the rest went for Carey. In the race for the assembly in this city Paul received a majority over Richardson of 462, the Milton man carrying every ward in Jamesville except the first. Mr. Richardson won own precinct voting against him by 26. The total vote on the assembly in the first district is given in another column.

The County Officials.
To Howard W. Lee, as stated above, belongs the honor of being the only republican candidate to carry the city. His majority was 39 votes. Fred Sherman securing a total of 1,100. Mr. Lee was given a handsome margin in his own ward considering the democratic tendencies of the voters, receiving 301 against 216. Mr. Lee also carried the second ward but the other wards went for Sherman. Jesse Barie was defeated in the city vote by 2, securing 1,123 against Boner's 1,135 in the race for clerk of circuit court. Connell carried every ward in the city except the third for sheriff with a margin of 548 over Whipple. The vote for the list of

ROCK COUNTY VOTES FAVORING SUFFRAGE BY A GOOD MAJORITY

Work of Political Equality League is Shown in Results Although Janesville Votes Against Question by 31.

Although the state as a whole defeated the suffrage amendment submitted as a referendum to the voters yesterday, by an overwhelming majority according to advices received from the Associated Press at Milwaukee, Rock County rallied to the "votes for women" standard and gave the suffragists a majority of 348.

Work of the Rock county political equality leagues and of the various local suffrage organizations previous to the election, and at the polls yesterday, showed largely in the results. The fight was close in the city of Janesville, however, and the city as a whole went against the proposition by 31 votes.

In Beloit there was a stronger sentiment in favor of the amendment due in part to the fact that the legislative candidates were adherents to the progressive cause and that they were largely favorites. Beloit gave the "yes" side a majority of 96.

Much to the surprise of the suffrage workers the rural communities showed surprising strength in favor of the amendment and the county's majority in the affirmative is due entirely to the vote in the townships. It is impossible to review and compare the various precincts, but the complete returns from the county unofficial of course, are given below.

The success of the suffrage cause in Rock county was due to the interest taken in the cause by the Rock County Equal Suffrage League with its headquarters in this city. On Tuesday the ladies of this league made a careful poll of the polls all through the county and in Janesville they were particularly active. Here they had members at the polls from early morning until they closed, working for the most part in two hour relays. Among those who took part in this campaign work here were Mrs. J. W. EVANSVILLE
[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Evansville, Nov. 6.—Contrary to the expectations of many, that Evansville would break her previous record and go democratic for once, the merchant tained her precedent, the votes cast being as follows:
Total number of votes for Roosevelt 68

Wilson 112

Neither were the efforts of the Political Equality league in vain, the votes for suffrage numbering 234, and those opposed, 154.
The returns here were awaited with feverish impatience. Election reports were issued between each side at the "Crystal." The returns were also awaited at Mages's opera house and city hall by ladies and gentlemen and the members of the P. E. L. and husbands received the returns at Mrs. T. C. Richardson's.

TEACHERS OF CITY GO TO CONVENTION

Seventy-five or More Expected to go to Milwaukee—School Closed For Rest of the Week.

Seventy-five or more Janesville teachers are expected to leave for Milwaukee this evening or tomorrow to attend the state teachers' convention which begins its session there Thursday. Because of the absence of the teachers from the city, the schools of the city will be closed for the rest of the week. The industrial school will not meet this Friday or Saturday, but on the following Friday and Saturday. A meeting of the high school athletic directors from all parts of the state will be called during the convention for the purpose of organizing a state basketball league. It is probable that the local schedule will be made out at that time, so that it may be made known in this city next week.

What, great British statesman?

Porto Rico's New Wonder.

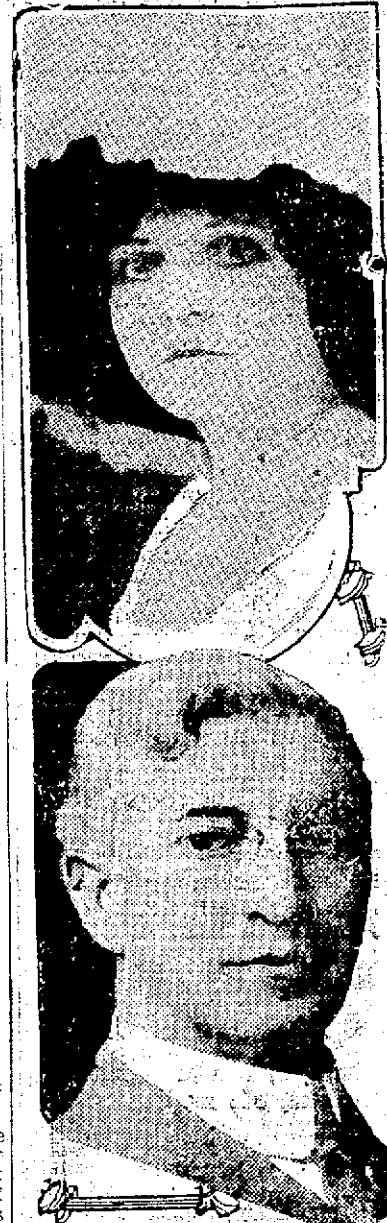

From far away Porto Rico, come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barcelona, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. WOMAN'S DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

Mrs. Jean Wiswell McComas and William Pratt McComas.

A thorough investigation of the death last week in San Francisco of Mrs. Jean McComas, the beautiful young wife of William Pratt McComas, a wealthy mining engineer, has been instituted by the coroner of that city. Mrs. McComas was found dying in her apartments from a bullet wound in her head. Her husband was at first arrested on suspicion, but has been released. He declares it was a case of suicide.

Friendship Suffers Much.
Whoever looks for a friend without imperfections will never find what he seeks. We love ourselves with all our faults, and we ought to love our friends in like manner.

Views of the Press.
A Bold Insult to the State.
Madison State Journal:—By all odds the most audacious dodge ever issued and the grossest insult ever offered to the citizens of Wisconsin has been sent out by "Progress and Reflector" (official organ of the State Retail Liquor Dealers' Association). In big bold, black letters it is captioned "Danger." It is the most effective argument for Votes for Women that was ever issued in any state. And it puts the anti in shameful league with the most corrupting influences of modern society. This stupendous insult to the honor of Wisconsin is worth reading because it shows to what limits the grog sellers dare go in their battle to submerge the American home in their iniquitous traffic. Read the dogger. We wish that we could reprint it with the full typographical emphasis given in the original.

Taft For Hadley.
Rockford Register-Gazette:—President Taft has come out strongly for Gov. Hadley of Missouri, to take Sherman's place on the republican ticket. Hadley was Roosevelt's floor leader in the republican national convention, but refused to follow the colonel in his desertion of the republican party. Gov. Hadley is supporting the straight republican ticket.

When It's All Over.
Milwaukee News:—And after the tumult and the shouting dies the only thing to look forward to will be a few football noises. Thanksgiving and then, oh, then, congress will fill the wintry atmosphere with oratory and a waiting for the new crowd to take office. Winter always was a hard season.

The Public's Stand.
Chicago News:—Much is said about the mighty Grover Cleveland's inability to cope with the bosses, but conditions have changed. The public is behind the revolt against bosses now, whereas Cleveland had to fight not the bosses alone, but a deplorable public apathy as well.

Not Quite Yet.
Racine Journal News:—So Gov. Wilson gives credit to Senator La Follette when he says he has broken up the republican party and is primarily responsible. However, and but, the republican party isn't broken-up yet.

Accepts the Rebuke.
A resident of an English city has made himself a marked man by insisting on saying "naught" instead of "no" when he calls a telephone number having ciphers in it. The telephone operator usually corrects him when he says "three double naught" by saying "Three double O." The other night he called up central and said, "Hello," and the girl replied: "Hello-naught." He accepted meekly the "quiet rebuke."—Springfield Republican.

KNIPP IS SUMMONED BEFORE THE COUNCIL

Must Show Cause Why His Saloon License Shall Not Be Revoked—Other City Business.

W. A. Knipp, convicted a short time ago for selling intoxicating liquor to Harry Berger and Edward Meyer, minors, appeared before the City Council this afternoon to a summons to show cause why his license to sell liquor should not be revoked.

Attorney John L. Fisher, who was his counsel in the recent case brought against him by the city, also appeared for him this afternoon. It is probable that unless some irregularity should be shown that the Council will revoke the license in accordance with the provisions of the state law.

City Engineer Edwin Main of Rockford filed with the council a written report of his inspection of the Milwaukee Street bridge. He states that the caps and piles, with a few repairs are good for at least 12 years, which would be about the life of the crooked plank and block to be used in the proposed new deck.

Field Brothers were granted permission to move a small frame building from the west side of High street to a location on the Northwestern tracks between Fifth and Jackson streets. Cecil Butts was given a permit to move a building from 617 Prospect Avenue to 193 Palm street.

The report of the Chief of Police for the month of October was received. Charles Thompson was appointed a special policeman for October 31, and the clerk directed to draw an order for $3 in his favor in payment of his services on Halloween.

The City Clerk was directed to draw orders for the payment of the jurors, witnesses, and constables in the case of the city versus W. A. Knipp and R. F. Finley.

An ordinance changing the number of all city ordinances beginning with No. 355 was given first and second reading. From this point they will number one and consecutive numbers.

PACKEY SAYS HE'LL GO INTO BUSINESS

Packey McFarland.

Packey McFarland, the Chicago fighter, who recently announced his intention of retiring from the ring at the close of the present year, says he proposes to go into business in Chicago, probably a commission business in the stockyards district.

Packey is only 24 years old, but he has been in the fight game eight years and has earned $200,000. "There are two reasons," he says, "why I am to leave the ring. One is that I have made all the money I need; the other is that I am tired of the training grind incidental to fighting."

It Will Pay Any Landlord To Improve His Property With Electric Light

Electric Light is an investment not an expense.

All the modern flats that have been built this last year are being lighted by electricity. There must be a reason, here are a few of them. They attract a more desirable class of tenants, who pay a better rental.

Now this family knows the advantages of electricity and is going to find a house or flat that is wired for electric lights, and now Mr. Landlord if you have a house or flat that is not wired, there is no better time than right now to have it done.

We will furnish estimate of the cost of wiring and prove to you that this is one of the most profitable investments you can make.

THE REASON

King, Cowles & Fifield, one of Janesville's most dependable shoe firms, anticipating an immense fall business, bought extremely heavy; and as the early fall business has not been what was expected, on account of a backward season, their store is packed from cellar to garret, with brand new shoes and the proprietor, realizing that they must do a most phenomenal business to unload this immense stock of shoes, have decided to sacrifice their entire profits rather than take chance on dubious weather later.

TAFT AND MCGOVERN CARRY ROCK COUNTY; KAREL RUNS CLOSE

STATE AND NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION INDORSED IN COUNTY IN SPITE OF THE DEMOCRATIC STRENGTH.

TAFT LEADS BY 1,240

Gov. Wilson Rather Poor Second Throughout County With Roosevelt a Better Third—McGovern's Lead, 418.

Both President Taft and Governor McGovern were indorsed by the voters of Rock County at the polls yesterday in spite of the democratic strength which was manifest in many precincts and especially in Janesville where Wilson and Karel were both given large pluralities.

Taft Makes Good Run.
President Taft's plurality in the county over Gov. Wilson according to unofficial returns received at the Gazette office early today, was 1,240. The president's total vote was 4,229; Wilson's was 2,989; and Roosevelt, running a better third than Wilson second, had 2,117. The total vote was 9,335. President Taft's majority four years ago was 4,652, and the total vote in the county was 11,070.

Beloit's showing in favor of Taft and McGovern was largely responsible for the republican majority in the county although the country districts generally indorsed the present administrations. Janesville city, however, with its pluralities for Karel and Wilson, cut the republican totals in the county and was something of a surprise.

Farmers for McGovern.
McGovern failed to make the showing that Taft did in the county securing a majority of only 418 votes. He carried Beloit by 876 and lost Janesville by 870. It will be seen from these figures that the McGovern lead was secured from the rural precincts and the city of Evansville which gave him a plurality of 117. Edgerton went for Karel as did Milton township which includes Milton Junction. It was anticipated that McGovern would poll a large vote among the farmers which is one reason why returns are as yet indefinite for the state as the rural districts in the northern part are difficult to access and returns are still meagre. The following tables give the vote on president and governor for the entire county according to incomplete returns:

Sympathy.
Sympathy is the power of putting ourselves in the place of other people. It is just in such sympathy that so many of us fail; and it is sympathy that means wise toleration. We must be able to oppose at times, and oppose vigorously. There are points on which we ought to feel strongly enough to be indignant, if need be—questions that can rouse our anger and make us unbending.

RICHARDSON LOST BY FOUR HUNDRED

Alexander M. Paul Defeats Janesville Man For Assembly in First District.

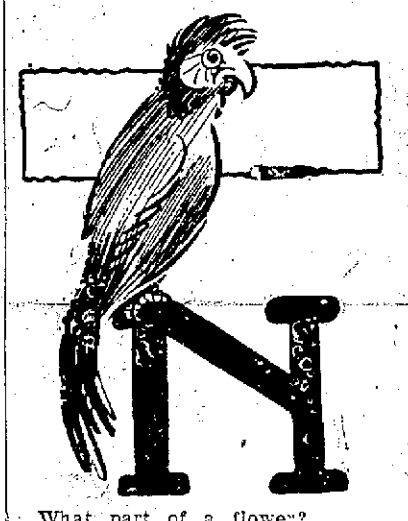

Alexander M. Paul, of Milton Junction, will be the next assemblyman from the new first assembly district of Rock county. Not only that but he will be a democratic assemblyman having defeated his republican opponent, Marshall P. Richardson of Janesville by 430 majority.

The vote was a surprise to even Mr. Paul's most ardent supporters. Richardson had a total vote of 2,037 while Paul polled 2,467. Richardson carried but seven of the sixteen precincts in his district, the towns of Center, Magnolia, Porter, Union, city of Evansville, Milton village, and the first ward of the city of Janesville.

Paul had a handsome endorsement in his home town, Milton Junction, receiving 277 votes to his opponent's 74. Fulton, town of Janesville, Lima, Edgerton city, and the second, third, fourth and fifth ward of the city of Janesville. The following is the vote by precincts.

Theatre

"THE JERSEY LILLY."

Proval, Kelly and Saxton offer the Jersey Lilly burlesque combination. A more pretentious organization of this character than is generally seen. Kelly and Saxton are comedians who have been connected with the Big City attractions and formed their company along the lines of this class of entertainment, spice and humor, without offense, intermingled with a carefully selected chorus who know how to sing and dance, beauty of face, attractive in form and grace, and how to wear the fetching costumes furnished by the management of the company. Special scenery, and stage effects are carried. In fact, the management have spared no expense to make this the most entertaining burlesque combination now touring one night stands. As an added feature, they have engaged the greatest of all dancers—Chooteta. This little petite body is beauty of face, of more than ordinary figure, and grace personified. Her act is embellished with entrancing music and her gowns are a dream. At the Myers theatre, Wednesday, Nov. 6.

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

A FABLE FOR YOU AND ME.

ONCE upon a time a Married Lady with a Perfectly Good Husband and Three Remarkable Children met a Long Lost Friend of her Girlhood in a Tea room.

Now the Friend of her Girlhood was still a Spinster, or, as she preferred to call it, a Bachelor Girl. Instead of a Perfectly Good Husband and Three Remarkable Children she had a Vocation. She painted Miniatures in Ivory and she lived in a Studio with another Bachelor Girl and Three Angora Cats.

Now after these Two Friends had fallen upon each other's necks in true Friend-of-one's-Girlhood style, they drew off and began to talk as fast as they could.

For awhile each one asked questions about the other's Special Interests and Pretended to listen to the answer, but before very long they began to act more Natural, and this is the way the dialogue ran:

The Married Lady: "My dear, you must come and see me. We have the dearest little house on Rose Street. It has eight rooms and two baths, and the cunningest little yard for the babies to play in."

Girlhood Friend: "Is that so? I wish I had a yard for my cats, but I have to give them their airing on the roof."

The Married Lady: "Is that so? Ruth has a little kitten. I wish you could see her play with it. She's too cunning for anything."

"Yes, dear. I know she must be. I've been painting some pictures of children lately. They are rather hard subjects, but Mrs. L. thought I did wonders with her little girl. You probably know Mrs. L., the suffrage leader?"

The Married Lady: "No, dear, I never heard of her. Speaking of pictures, I think Gretchen is going to have artistic talent. She draws the nicest pictures on her slate. You can almost guess what they are meant for without her telling you."

Girlhood Friend: "How nice! My dear, I met the stunningest man the other day. Just the type you used to love, dark hair and grey eyes and thin. And so interesting!"

The Married Lady: "How nice! Do you know my husband has grown quite fat. I tell him I shall have to get another cook if this one has that effect on him. We have the best cook in town I do believe. We got her at H's employment Bureau."

Girlhood Friend: "Did you really? As I was saying, that man is one of the most interesting people I ever met. He is a journalist and he knows the nicest people. He promised to have a tea in his studio and invite some of them to meet me."

The Married Lady: "Did he really? I used to go to tea, myself. But I can't now—I have the babies. You know Gretchen is rather timid. She is only five and has had the measles, the mumps, whooping-cough and scarlet fever already."

At this juncture the Girlhood Friend remembered an appointment, and they kissed each other good-bye Adoringly and promised to meet again soon.

That night the Married Lady told her Perfectly Good Husband that she had met her Girlhood Friend. "And she paints pictures and goes around with Bohemian people," she said. "And she can't talk of anything else. I never saw anyone so self-centered."

That night the Bachelor Girl told the Bachelor Girl that she had met her Married Lady Friend. "And all she could talk about was her husband and her babies, just like all the rest. Strange how narrow married women get!"

And do you know, neither the Bachelor Girl nor the Married Lady ever suspected that she was the least bit funny.

SOME BEST RECIPES.

Bolled Loaf.—A simple pudding which can be made for an emergency. Take a loaf of baker's bread and cut off all the crust, then press into the loaf as many seeded raisins as it will hold without breaking. After preparing a custard with two eggs, a pint of milk and a fourth of a cup of sugar, dip the loaf in it and let it stand long enough to absorb all the milk. Then lay it in a floured pudding cloth and drop it in boiling water and boil for twenty minutes. Serve with creamed butter and powdered sugar, flavored with vanilla. Place the bowl of butter and sugar in hot water and stir until soft.

Delicious Little cakes for tea are made of the round crackers covered with a teaspoonful of boiled frosting and chocolate nuts and raisins. Then baked.

Chicken Broth.—A very wholesome and nourishing bowl of broth may be made from the liquor in which a chicken is stewed. To a tablespoonful of butter, bubbling hot, add a tablespoonful of flour, then a cupful of the broth. When hot add a quarter of a cup of thin cream and pour the hot soup over a well beaten egg. Season with salt and red pepper.

Cracker Dessert.—When pushed for ideas on dessert-try crackers: Put a half dozen of split milk crackers to soak in cold water for half an hour. Take them out with a skimmer and place them on a buttered dish, the cracker side up. Butter the top of each and put into a hot oven. In a few minutes they will be puffed and brown. Serve with any kind of preserves and black cream.

Black Bass, Okauchee Style.—Prepare the fish and fill with several slices of bacon, which has been dredged with parsley and seasoned with pepper and salt. Wind a string around the fish and fry or broil a half hour. Serve with melted butter and lemon.

Diver Seized by Octopus. A naval diver at Toulon was suddenly attacked by a giant octopus while under water in the harbor. He gave the hoisting signal and was hauled to the surface, together with the octopus, whose tentacles, said to be 25 feet long, were wrapped around him. The diver was unconscious. The octopus held fast to the diver until it was stabbed to death. It weighed 335 pounds, and the suckers on its tentacles were as big as half-dollar pieces. —London Mail.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

FEEDING WHAT IS NEEDED.

"If it is true that 'the blood is the life,' that the defenses of the body against disease depend upon the condition of the blood, why not determine by laboratory analysis what elements are lacking in the blood, and feed any given person what he needs?" Digestion is a mental, as much as a physical process. A man might have all the elements needed in the blood in exact proportion today, and be dead tomorrow as a result of worry or fright. The food presented might be one against which an hereditary or acquired idiosyncrasy exists, and might seriously derange the digestion. The patient's physical and mental condition, his heredity, his education and environment are more important than what can be determined chemically. Important as that is in some cases. The biologic school aim to supply what is lacking in the mineral elements of the blood (sodium, potassium, magnesium, etc.) in "tissue salts," small tablets, and the medical school supply such mineral needs as iron in anemia or phosphorus in certain forms of nervous weakness, but all the mineral elements are supplied in entire wheat, figs, prunes, eggs, milk and most other foods. When normal conditions of nutrition are restored by attention to all the conditions of good assimilation and elimination, health will be gradually restored, unless some organ or organism is seriously wasted or worn out or abnormal by heredity.

CHATS WITH THINKING WOMEN

by Barbara Boyd
Building a Soul-house

ISN'T there a good deal to ponder over in this paragraph of Rustin's? "To get peace, if you want it, make for yourself nests of pleasant thoughts. Few of us know what fairy palaces we may build of beautiful thoughts,—proof against all adversity. Bright fancies, satisfied memories, noble histories, faithful sayings, treasure houses of precious and restful thoughts, which care cannot disturb, nor pain make gloomy, nor poverty take away from us,—houses built without hands for our souls to live in."

Especially is that last paragraph worth studying: "Houses built without hands for our souls to live in."

We give a lot of thought and time and energy to the building of houses for our bodies to live in. But most of us seldom think of providing a pleasant habitation for our soul. Probably most of us content ourselves in this direction with the promise of that mansion in the sky, that is being prepared for us.

But will not our soul be better fitted to dwell in it, if we give it a suitable habitation here? And do you not suppose that, though we may be given the mansion yonder, we are expected to do the furnishing?

And even if we are not concerned with the house for the soul in the world beyond, why not build it a beautiful palace here, into which we can retire when weary, or when troubles press, or when the material life scarcely seems worth while?

And we can build just the sort of one we want. We do not have to consider cost. Its erection and furnishing are not a matter of dollars and cents. We do not need to give up a wing here, because it is beyond our appropriation, or take hangings we do not like, because the kind we want cost too much money. We do not have to turn regretfully from Oriental rugs to art squares, because our bank account won't warrant the weave and dye of the Orient. In the home we build our soul, there need be no such disappointment and heartburning. Whatever we want in it, we can put there.

We can store up bright fancies if we wish, and enliven many a dull day by going into these rooms and looking over all the whimsical and fanciful imaginings we have had about life or dress or what we wish to do, or people,—in fact, where there is an end to pleasant fancies? They are an unending series of pictures as full of fairy-like beauty as we wish to paint them.

Then think of the "noble histories" we can put into our soul house. The world is full of the record of brave men and faithful women and great deeds, that dwell upon bringing a glow to the heart and a quickened pulse. Aren't these worth making ours, and putting into our soul house? Won't life seem more worth while, more the big, purposeful thing it is, when we think upon these?

But the most delightful of all the furnishings for our soul house are the faithful sayings. For these are more than mere beauty to look at, or pleasure to think upon. They are an inspiration. For they are the thoughts or the realities of life. They are of the Truth that fade not away, that never grows less, that abides forever. And these can bring us the peace that nothing can disturb, the peace that can drive away sorrow and discouragement and take the sting out of poverty.

So if we have not yet begun the building of our soul-house, why not start at once? Why not choose today one of these faithful sayings, or pick out a pleasant memory, or commence the search for a noble history? And then, even though but a little may be done toward its erection, let us go each day and enjoy that little. Let us dwell for awhile with these fancies or memories or faithful sayings; and the everyday life we must live, will go the more brightly and happily.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

BY MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am 17 years old but have been married nearly two months. My husband isn't 20 yet. We eloped and were married secretly and when our parents found it out they were very angry and wouldn't let us come to either of their homes. My husband's father is a very rich man, and he has never had to work, so he cannot support me.

We have been living with my husband's aunt, since we were married, but don't feel that we ought to do so any longer, though she is very kind to us. My father says I can come home if I will give up my husband. I can't do this because I love him so dearly.

Do you think that if I went to Daddy and begged him to take us both home and give my husband a start in some business, it would do any good, Daddy is a very stubborn man and doesn't like my husband very well.

Please advise me what to do, for I have no one else to ask. Is $12 a week enough to support a family of three?

MRS. HELEN. Another case of foolish children and hard-hearted parents. Faults are on both sides, but now that the two are married, it does seem as if the old folks might relent and at least help the young couple to help themselves. But I will tell you one thing, dear little bride. I wouldn't stick to dear little husband for a minute to an able-bodied man who couldn't support me. That is what he undertook to do when he married you. Because his father is rich is no reason why he shouldn't work to support his wife, and he isn't worth a snap of your pretty finger if he isn't willing to do any kind of labor, even digging ditches to give you some kind of a home independent of either his or your relatives.

I know you think you can't live without him now, my dear, but you won't be much older when you will despise him if he doesn't act like a man. Ask your father to take you out of mischief. It was an incentive toward honesty and just living. But we've had a lot of gush about the man who's been in the penitentiary. We've sentimentalized over him until the man who prefers to live by dishonest methods feels that it will be no permanent disgrace even if he is caught and must serve a prison sentence.

Moreover, we have become so soft-hearted that we are actually making our prisons most inviting. Common prisoners are fed better rations than honest men are often able to get, while prisoners of high social or financial degree can get just about what they want, including pleasant living quarters and obsequious attention from their keepers.

The court laughed. So also did everybody else who heard it. It seemed particularly funny to them that anybody felt disgraced by a mere arrest for speeding. Why, some folks are even proud of the number of times they have been arrested for speeding, and the amounts of the fines they pay! And many who felt disgraced must be terribly behind the times.

There was a time, not so many years ago, when the mere fact of being arrested for any cause, just or unjust, was considered a disgrace. The whole family of the arrested one hung its head in shame. Its position was never quite the same again in society.

Children and grownups alike took good care to obey the laws and escape confinement. There was a sort of holy horror of jail implanted in the youthful mind, with the result that the average boy and girl grew up with a firm resolve to be good and keep away from such a frightful place.

But nowadays boys talk lightly of prisons and police. They prefer to keep away from the former, to be sure. They regard the latter with practically no respect. In fact, the police are sometimes openly defied by the youth of highly respected parents, in the knowledge that Dad has a "pull" with the higher-ups, and so, of course, Son can do about as he pleases with impunity.

Even the penitentiary has little if any terrors now. A man sentenced to a term in the penitentiary was once upon a time looked upon as a lower sort of animal by all his fellow beings. He knew that the penalty of his crime was larger than the law's punishment. The knowledge often kept him himself from doing any more, my dear, unless he writes you a mighty nice letter. Then let him wait a good time before you reply.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Jelly Hint. When I made jelly, I thought it a pity to waste all the pulp left in the bag, so put it back in the kettle, covered it with water, let it boil again and drain; it made finer jelly than the first lot.

The Table. Home-made Breakfast Food—Grind dry, stale bread, white or brown, sift out the fine for breading chops, etc.; use only the coarse. Toast or brown in oven, serve with hot (not cold) cream or milk and sugar. Nutmeg or cinnamon if desired. You will find this as good or better than most breakfast foods.

Inexpensive Dinner.—Slice one-half pound of kidney and one-half pound liver. Season well with pepper and salt and fry in hot drippings or lard until a golden brown on all sides. When done take up and fry two large onions sliced in the same fat. While these are cooking, peel and grate a large carrot and turnip. Now place the kidney, liver and fried onions in a saucepan and add spread over the grated vegetables. Add a little salt and pepper and pour over sufficient hot water to barely cover all and cook very slowly for three-fourths of an hour. Five minutes before serving thicken the gravy with a little flour mixed to a smooth paste with cold water. When the flour is cooked it is ready. The dish can be served with some nicely mashed potatoes.

One-Egg Cake.—Cream one cup granulated sugar with one tablespoon butter and one egg. Then add one cup sweet milk and two cups flour sifted with two teaspoons baking powder. Flavor to taste. Beat well and bake 20 minutes in moderate oven. If desired, two egg yolks or two whites may be substituted for one egg with equal success.

The Housewife. When ironing handkerchiefs I fold the best ones in the ordinary way, while those which are in any way worn or stained are folded three-cornerwise. The same rule is followed in ironing napkins and tablecloths. I fold the old and worn ones slightly different from the others. When I go to the linen closet I can tell at a glance what I have without unfolding several articles and when using a clean handkerchief I am saved the mortification of exhibiting a ragged or torn one.

For Ironing Day.—Try using a thick block of wood for an iron stand instead of an ordinary open ironstand. The iron will retain their heat much longer than if the open stand is used.

To Tie a Comforter and save time, set the stitches the whole distance across before tying. After chalking the line take a double thread longer than the width of the comforter and proceed to set the stitches the whole distance across, carrying the thread along unbroken. A few snips of the scissors and you are ready to tie, saving the constant change of needle to scissors. The work is fully as neat and much faster.

Utilizing Superfluous Furnace Heat.—Around the edge of furnace build a ring of brick two or three bricks high and fill the enclosed space with sand. This will check the immense amount of heat above the furnace which goes Simple lines, quickly revealing a defect or pronouncing a curve of beauty. Since frocks of simplicity, made of dainty, flimsy—almost transparent—textures, have become the vogue, good corseting has become a necessity.

If the corset does not fit well the frock is spoiled. If it fits for a few days, and then loses its shape the result is the same.

A Redfern is Always Satisfactory.

It is boned with the best whalebones, creating a pliant corset that fits beautifully and easily. Where a steel is necessary it is the flexible Rust-Proof. Attached are the Security Rubber Button Hose Supporters.

READY TO TRY LAST OF HILLVILLE OUTLAWS.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Wytheville, Va., Nov. 6.—The last of the trials growing out of the Hillville court-house tragedy of last March, when the Allen gang of outlaws shot down and killed six court attaches and spectators, are scheduled to begin here tomorrow, when Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards will be arraigned for trial before Judge Staples of Roanoke. The two were captured in Des Moines, Iowa, some weeks ago, after a country-wide search. Edwards is to be tried first. Then will come the hearing of the case against Sydney Allen, who is regarded as the real leader of the gang. The prosecution entertains no doubt of the conviction of both, as the evidence against them is considered even stronger than against the others, two of whom have been sentenced to the electric chair and two others to long terms of imprisonment.

BISHOP WELLS CELEBRATES HIS FIFTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, Nov. 6.—Rev. Reginald Heber Wells, who recently succeeded the late Bishop Griffin as head of the Episcopal diocese of Fond du Lac, was born in Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 6, 1857. Reginald Wells entered an academy at Jacksonville, Fla., in 1863, and after completing his studies there he matriculated at the University of the South, where he obtained his classical degree in 1877. He studied for the church at Nashota Theological Seminary and was ordained in 1884. Careless Burglar.

An absent-minded burglar, having gained entrance to a Philadelphia residence and gathered all the family jewelry, slipped everything into his pockets. Then, discovering a brand new suit of clothes, he changed his raiment and left the house, forgetting to empty the pockets of his old suit. It is difficult for the careless man to attain a very high degree of efficiency in any line of endeavor.—Boston Globe.

Surpassed Them All.

A near race riot happened in a southern town. The negroes gathered in one crowd and the whites in another. The whites fired their revolvers into the air, and the negroes took to their heels. Next day a plantation owner said to one of his men: "Sam, were you in that crowd that gathered last night?" "Yassir." "Did you run like the wind, Sam?" "No sir. I didn't run like the wind, 'deed I didn't. But I passed two niggers that was running like the wind."—Pennsylvania Grit.
